

Brathay Lodge - Ambleside

Access Statement

Brathay Lodge, Ambleside, is a traditional English Lake District B & B which was originally built as two semi detached properties around 1890.

Situated towards central Ambleside, Lake District, Brathay Lodge is within a few minutes' walk of over 30 eateries offering a wide range of cuisine. There are also numerous gourmet restaurants and inns within a short drive of Ambleside - something for all tastes and all budgets. Most of our guests visiting Ambleside on a short break or as part of an even longer Lake District vacation tend to leave their cars on our large private off-road car park for the duration of their stay, preferring to take advantage of our proximity and enjoy the many local walks during the day and the restaurants and bars of the evening. Walkers / mountain bikers / golfers etc, both casual and serious, like Brathay Lodge's informality and enjoy the facilities on offer and if it's wet or muddy, there is always a place to dry out those wet clothes and footwear overnight.

PRE - ARRIVAL

- We are ¾ mile from Windermere Lake
- The main bus stop is a 3-minute walk away. Buses to various locations run frequently, service stops in the evening and there is limited service on Sundays.
